Scott Retired? Well, No—But He's Given Watch

The members of the Village Board, the Antioch Fire Department, the Antioch Rescue Squad and the members of the Antioch Police Department presented Police Chief Walter Scott with a Longline watch at the Fire Dept.'s annual turkey dinner Tuesday night, Dec. 22.

The presentation was made by Fire Chief Edgar Simonsen, in recognition of "Scott's" long years of service with each of the civic bodies represented.

Mr. Scott has served sixteen years with the Antioch Police Dept., and has served in the past as a village trustee, a fireman, and a member of the Rescue Squad.

Though no official announcement is being made, the presentation, following the four-month leave of absence granted to Scott at the last Village Board meeting apparently signified the end of Scott's long career as Chief of Police of Antioch. He will be eligible for retirement at the end of April, according to Ray Toft.

The Board of Education of Antioch Township High School will start the New Year off with a request that voters approve a 15c raise in the educational tax for the High School.

The legal notice of the referendum, which will be held January 23, will appear in next week's issue of the Antioch News.

Postoffice Not Open Dec. 26

Most postal employees will get a three-day Christmas weekend this year, announces Postmaster General John A. Gronouski.

Postoffices across the nation will be closed on Saturday, Dec. 26. In addition to giving postal workers a long weekend, the Government will save an estimated $3 or $4 million. Ordinarily, regular employees who work Saturday would be given a day off the following week. By giving them Saturday off, there will be no need to pay substitute employees to replace them during their compensatory leave.

Some employees at the Antioch Post Office will have to work a few hours Saturday morning to sort mail and put it in the business boxes in the lobby. Postmaster Roy Kufalk said. The lobby will be open so that businesses can pick up their mail.

Rural mail carriers will also deliver their mail, Kufalk said.

Mail is moving fast this chairman of the police committee.

In the meantime, Sergeant Jack Heick, next in rank, is in charge of the Antioch Police Dept. during Scott's absence.

Four members of the Village Board will be up for reelection in April, including the office of Mayor. Rumor has it that Mayor Cunningham will not be seeking reelection, and that Ray Toft and David Nissen, both members of the village board, will be seeking the Mayor's chair.

The appointment of a Chief of Police will be made by the successful candidate for Mayor.

Chief Scott and his wife, Ruth, are continuing to handle the radio calls of the police department during Scott's leave of absence.

Edgar Simonsen reported an excellent turnout for the annual turkey dinner Tuesday night at the Fire Station. All members of the Village Board except Roger Williams were present; also members of the Rescue Squad, Fire Department and Police Department.

The food for the dinner was donated by Victor Lukeman of Antioch Excavating. A colored movie of the 1964 500-mile race at the Indianapolis Speedway was shown.

My Vote Was No -Water

In last week's issue of the Antioch News, it was mistakenly reported that the Board of Education of Channel Lake Grade School voted unanimously in favor of the annexation of the school to the Antioch Grade School.

Richard Waters, member of the Board of Education of Channel Lake Grade School, voted against the annexation.

"I was against it from the start, and I'm still against it," Waters declared. "I feel that we just lost another of our freedoms."

"Channel Lake School has been here a long time," he said. "As far as the financial trouble the school is in, I think we would have pulled out of it. Every school in the country is operating in the red. The school district acquired all that land west of the river when we annexed English Prairie school, a marina is going up out there, and I feel we'd soon have more income from taxes."

"The only benefit to the students that I can see," Waters continued, "is that they'll be able to get music and art training. I think any parents who really wanted their children to have these studies could arrange for them themselves."

I intend to go to the hearing on January 4," Waters said. "I don't know that I'll make any protest, but I want to hear what goes on."

Two Deaths Bring Year's Toll To 93

Lake County appears to be headed for a record year in the number of traffic fatalities. The deaths of two Zion men last Thursday brought traffic deaths for the year up to 93. In 1961, 95 persons died in traffic accidents, the county's record toll to date.

James M. Ditzig, 35 of 1010 19th St., Zion, and Robert Robbins, 41, of 2545 Gideon Ave., both died after a head-on collision on Rte. 173 near Ezekiel Ave. Police were unable to ascertain which driver had swerved into the wrong lane.

Touch-Tone Dialing Comes To Antioch Soon

All Antioch area telephones will have a new "voice" beginning Monday morning, December 28.

The new voice will be a lower-pitched dial tone—the sound heard when the phone is picked up.

The lower pitched tone will not affect the use of dial phones in any way, Illinois Bell Telephone Manager Dick Miller said. Phone users should make calls in the usual way.

The reason for the change is the introduction of Touch-Tone calling to all phone users whose numbers begin "395" and "396," Miller said.

The present dial tone interferes with the musical tones sent out by a touch-tone phone and would cause customers who will have this new service to get wrong numbers, he explained.

With Touch-Tone, push buttons and musical tones are used to place a call. This faster, easier and more convenient service will be available beginning January 1.

A 10-button keyboard, carrying the same number-letter combination found on the conventional dial, replaces the familiar dial wheel. Customers no longer will wait to wind up the dial for each digit, then wait for it to spin back. They will be able to tap out the number twice as fast as they now dial it.

Miller said installation of Touch-Tone equipment in the central office will be completed by December 28.

From then until January 11, the equipment will undergo rigorous testing to make sure it's in excellent operating condition.

Radio Greetings To Servicemen Now Sent From This Area

Local people who wish to send messages to friends or loved ones in Military Service can do so by calling 395-2379 between the hours of 7 to 9 p.m.

The service is free and without obligation on the part of the sender or the member of the armed services.

The service is performed by amateur radio station WEA9VVB. The service is sponsored by MARS, the U.S. Air Force Military Affiliate Radio Service.

Messages may be sent by radio through the amateur members of the group of season's greeting, solicitations for information and forwarding of information at all times that the addressee is a member of the armed forces. Messages can be sent anywhere in the world, except in certain restricted areas.

Pre-Xmas Activities Keep Students Busy

Students of Antioch Township High School, along with most Lake County students, started their Christmas vacation at 3 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 22. School will resume on Jan. 4.

Gail Mack was chosen Queen of the Christmas formal at the High School Saturday night. Terry Schneider was the choice for King. Queen candidates were Nikki Badame, Mary Dahlman, Carol Fraser and Kathy Nebel, in addition to Miss Mack.

Terry Schneider was chosen from a list which included Bob Flood, Carl Meade, Mark Nelson and Vic Rogers.

A Christmas program sponsored by the Student Council was presented Tuesday morning at the High School. Bruce Dalgard MC'd the program which included songs by Rosemary and Betty Frank; numbers by the Sen-lon Choir, some remarks from Superintendent Albert Dittman and Christmas carols by the Stage Band.

Masaji Okubo, Antioch High's Foreign Exchange student, described Christmas in Japan to the students. The religious side of Christmas is lacking in the Japanese adaptation of Christmas, where the Buddhist religion predominates. New Year's is an occasion of great festivity and family gatherings in Japan.

FUTURE NURSES ENTERTAIN CHILDREN

The Future Nurses of America, a High School organization with Miss Martha Heindl, school nurse, serving as faculty adviser, hosted 27 pre-school children of faculty members at a Christmas party last Thursday afternoon. Games and refreshments entertained the children until Santa Claus appeared. Santa Claus dispensed gifts to the children and visited with them.

Girls from the Future Nurses Assoc. also toured Hampstead House last week in line with the Christmas spirit. The trip was made to acquaint the girls with services that can be rendered to the aged.

Two of the girls volunteered their part-time services to brighten the lives of residents at the Home. Diane Seidelman has already started a regular schedule of visits to Hampstead House. Greta Walker expects to start soon.

The girls will start by helping to distribute serving trays, visiting with residents and performing small chores to add to their comfort. After a certain length of service they will progress, Miss Heindl said, to some services related to the nursing careers they seek, such as aiding the occupational therapist.

CHRISTMAS PARTY AT ST. PETER'S SCHOOL

Children at St. Peter's School started their Christmas vacation as of Tuesday afternoon, also. A Christmas program complete with a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus was presented at the Social Center Tuesday afternoon.

Pre-school children and parents joined the school children for the Christmas party. A variety of Christmas songs and recitations were presented by the children, then Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus arrived with a jingle of bells and treats for the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Ropinski, 701 Country Lane, Woodland, have filled in for Santa at several of the area schools for several years.

Wins Diamond Ring At Grand Opening

Mrs. Dolores Perkins, 1010 Bishop St., Antioch, won the diamond ring given by the new owners of Keulman's Jewelry Store for their Grand Opening. George Hahn, owner of the store, presented the ring to Mrs. Perkins after Santa Claus drew her name from among those registered. The drawing was held Saturday afternoon.

Girl Scouts Plan January Program

In order to improve the scouting program for Girl Scouts in the Sequoyah Neighborhood, training sessions have been planned to be held at the Antioch Scout House in January.

The sessions will run from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. On Jan. 9th, Joan Olsen of Mundelein will give song training. Three girls from each troop excepting Brownies, will attend.

On Jan. 16, there will be a patrol leaders' workshop. Patrol leaders and assistants will be given training on the how and why of patrol system. Each neighborhood troop will be represented.

A Senior Scout recruiting program will be held in January also. This will be for girls in the high school who are interested in learning various skills for everyday use.

The strongest bone in the human body is the femur, or thigh bone.

Now that you've gone broke, buying Christmas presents, Village Clerk Clarence Shults, would like to remind village residents that their vehicle stickers are due on Jan. 1.

The fee is $6.00 per year. A $2.00 penalty will be added to the price after February 15.

Early Morning Fire Destroys C. L. Home

Fire virtually destroyed the rented home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hattendorf at Channel Lake last Friday morning and drove them and their children out into the near-zero cold at about 6 a.m.

Firemen from the Antioch Fire Department put out the fire, which destroyed the interior of the home. The Hattendorfs' furniture and clothing were totally destroyed, Mrs. Hattendorf said.

The fire started when Mr. Hattendorf attempted to work on a faulty oil stove. He had drained oil from the oil lines, Fire Chief Edgar Simonsen said, and it stood in the room in open pans. When Hattendorf re-lighted the stove, it overheated and started the fire. Simonsen said that flames from the open pans of oil ignited in a flash explosion just as the fire trucks drove into the yard. The flash fire that swept through the house and the fumes scorched the contents of the home.

The Hattendorfs have three small children, Debra, 3; Jane, 2, and Susan, seven months. All except the baby were awake and out of bed when the fire started. The Hattendorfs wrapped them in blankets and took them to the car. No one was injured.

Christmas presents for the children were in the trunk of the car, Mrs. Hattendorf said, and were undamaged.

The Hattendorfs have been staying with Mrs. Hattendorf's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Simon, 1088 Osmond Ave., Antioch, since the fire destroyed their home. They have found a home to rent in Oakwood Knolls and plan to move there next week.

The contents of the house were not insured, Mrs. Hattendorf said.

The burned house was located in the subdivision behind Charlie's Channel Inn. Owner of the house is Harold Petersen.

CHILDREN from the Baptist Children's Home were entertained by American Legion Post 748 at a Christmas party at the Lake Region Roller Rink last Wednesday. Santa Claus distributed prizes and candy to the happy skaters.

THOMAS HART, son of Mrs. Pauline Hart, and Maria Mattooni, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mattooni, Jr., were among the children called up to receive gifts from Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus at St. Peter's School Christmas party Tuesday.

Merry Christmas

This is an easy world to enter. You have only to walk in through your own door this afternoon and you will have arrived, for the world of Christmas is the world of home.

In appropriate celebration of the birth of Jesus, parents and children, brothers and sisters, grandparents and grandchildren, uncles and aunts and nieces and nephews proclaim and glorify their affection for each other. They acknowledge it with the giving of gifts.

They deck their homes with the greens that never die even in the depth of winter and are therefore the symbols of immortality. They set out feasts on their tables and strive and contrive to make dreams come true for each other.

Christmas is the season of tenderness, and it is also the season of faith. And the faith is not the faith of religion alone; there is also a faith, which lives on in every normal mind, that things which are wrong will come right in the end.

This is a faith born of hope and an instinctive belief in the essential decency and kindness of mankind. It is a faith that never quite dies under any buffeting by logic or by history, and the Christmas trees are its symbol.

Up and down the endless miles of streets they stand aglow and aglitter with a blooming which Nature can contemplate only with breathless incredulity, and the message they send out through their windows lifts the heart of the passing stranger.

"Believe," they say. "Believe that trouble will pass and peace return, for humanity, although it must have its sorrows, is made for happiness and happiness is its normal state. Rest ye merry. Let nothing you dismay."

Exchange Billboards For $

The Chicago Motor Club has announced that it will push enactment of legislation in the 1965 session of the Illinois General Assembly to prevent the uncontrolled erection of billboards along Interstate Highway systems in the state.

Several states already have such legislation. We get so used to the giant billboards that line our highways that we forget the beautiful views that are hidden by these walls of commercialism. It is not until we travel in states where the natural beauty of the highway is unobscured that we realize the joy of a full view of the landscape.

Illinois is making a vigorous bid to promote tourism in the state. Certainly clutters of billboards along highways do nothing to attract the vacationing traveler.

Illinois will get another bonus if such legislation is passed. They will meet Federal standards which will qualify the state for a special bonus of one-half of one per cent of project costs on the Interstate Highway system. This would add about $5 million to the Highway Fund.

As the number of cars on the highways increase, as living conditions get more crowded, people long more for the open country and vistas of nature. Surely billboards are not indispensable as a method of advertising.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

There is no season like the Christmas Season and not even the early appearance of ornaments and Shop Early signs can completely obscure the wonder of these days.

Even if you are able to ignore the religious significance of the Season you can't help being caught up in a swirling feeling of good will towards men that sometimes even affects editors and other notable Scrooge types. It is so pleasant to open an envelope and find a cheery greeting and wishes for your happiness and well-being instead of a surly suggestion that you come up with a payment on your car, refrigerator or that latest Gauguin painting you are buying on time.

Former friends who have been ducking you for weeks because they are in your debt a few bucks suddenly find the courage to face you and make with the Merry Christmas bit, secure in the knowledge that this is no time to drag up unpleasant memories of the past.

This is the period when production in most offices almost comes to a standstill as stenographers and secretaries take extended lunch periods to get in a little extra shopping and the boss stops off for a cup of the season's cheer with a bunch of the boys.

Probably only during the World Series is the same tolerance exhibited towards non-production during working hours.

ALONG THE WAY with Anne Mae

My dearest readers, you brought tears to my eyes. Your many calls and inquiries were a pleasant surprise. Printer's ink, I find, gets under your skin! So if you'll open your papers, I'd like to come in.

THE LATEST REPORT: Hall to the King! Jares that is! His Royal Majesty and orchestra have been requested to play at the Gubernatorial Inaugural Ball in the Capitol Bldg. next month. Don't miss the spectacular lighting display at the Don Poulter residence on the south shore of Lake Antioch. We really dig that huge flocked tree too! Everyone is speculating on the new Police Chief since the announcement of the leave of absence and forthcoming retirement of Walter Scott. We know who would make a top-notch Chief, but then I guess nobody asked us, did they? I'd like to mention in passing the devoted work done by Scott's wife, Ruth, who manned that radio like a trooper.

NOTES TO YOU: Doc and Marge Ripley have packed their brood off to the great state of Oregon where they will be making their new home. Wouldn't it be interesting to know how we stand on the Countryside Hospital fund drive? The S. B. Nelsons and son Harold will be spending the next couple of months in sunny California.

The Christmas Season is a time for renewing old friendships, including that friendship with Him whose birthday we celebrate.

It is the Season for parties, good cheer, and good business, and for the exchange of presents.

And if we were Santa Claus we would make the Season Bright for Waukegan Supervisor August Ceyon by presenting him with a shiny new courthouse, while to Avon's Norm Georgy we would bring an advance copy of the county board meeting agenda so he would be abreast of what is about to happen.

To the Northern Illinois Conservation Club we would bring clear, cold weather for the annual Fishing Derby on January 10 at Channel Lake, and immediately afterwards an early thaw so ex-corporner Mickey Babcox can get his new sand and gravel business into high gear. To W. J. (Bill) Murphy, a re-appointed state legislator that would enable him to seek re-election without facing the resistance of the Gold Coast. To the Lake County Safety Commission a new executive Director who, by the sheer power of his posters, would reduce the number of traffic deaths. To Sheriff Charles Larson an operating budget big enough to permit a minimum of six highway patrol cars on the highway at all times and perhaps we could do away with the Safety Commission. To Assistant Avon Supervisor Moon Mullins a score of aspirants for his job which should insure his re-election. To Robert Milton, chairman of the Lake County Republican Central Committee, his stocking crammed with unity and cooperation. To Appellate Judge Thomas J. Moran we would bring an opening on the Federal bench so he won't go stale. To Jack (Red) Anderson, of Gurnee, the nod from Guy O. Lunn that it is okay for him to seek the GOP nomination for County Treasurer and a similar word to Terry Tucker, also of the Treasurer's office, that Karl Kerning would accept him as a worthy successor. To all the judges and clerks of elections a full supply of shiny new voting machines. To Former Sheriff Stanley M. Christian temporary employment until the next sheriff's campaign gets underway after which he may be too busy to work. To State Reps. Bill Hartnett, John Conolly, and Francis Berry, committee appointments suitable to their talents and interests. To State Senator Robert E. Coulson, a long horsewhip to serve as a symbol of authority in Springfield. To the publishers or paymasters of the periodicals that publish these musings, kind hearts and understanding natures. To all of you who read these musings Good Cheer, Good Fellowship, Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

formal visiting relatives and friends. We happened to get a glimpse of Edna Radke's birthday cake last Saturday night, but we won't mention how many candles. Edna, if you don't give away our little secret either, O.K.? Another year has passed so fast.

And Santa will be here at last. I saw him just the other day. And gave these suggestions. Along the Way!

For Bill Murphy, a friend of mine! Binghamite would be just fine.

A "First Aid Kit" all complete. For Pearl Scully, would be real sweet!

An amplifier, if it's not too loud.

For Bruce Stahmer when he's in a crowd. Now for Rose Plechaty and her new home.

A Republican maid to answer her phone. Please bring Dick Miller our entomology "Count". All of the Beatles for him to mount.

To George Plack, that golfing soul. Please bring his "Ace in the Hole".

A "By-Line" we'd wrap up if we could. For Marilyn Sterbenz, a writer who's good!

And George Bartlett, so we've heard. Is waiting for a Thunderbird! Our list is long and could go on forever.

But time and space would never permit us to mention all of your names.

When Santa arrives on Christmas Day Please say a good word for Along the Way.

Have the Merriest Christmas season, And I'll be back again with some rhyme and reason!

God Bless you everyone, Anne Mae

We'll all agree that Illinois Bell has gone a long way since way back when—but did you ever look on page 3 of your Antioch phone directory—"YOUR TOLL-FREE LOCAL CALLING AREA"—and note how Illinois Bell discriminates against the people of Antioch and Fox Lake?

We happen to live the same distance from Fox Lake as we do Antioch. Yet every time we call Fox Lake, it is a toll call! Lake Villa people can call not only Antioch, but also Fox Lake, Grayslake AND Waukegan, all toll free! Why the discrimination?

If Lake Villa, Grayslake, Libertyville, Mundelein and Round Lake can all call Waukegan toll free—why shouldn't this service be offered to the people of Antioch and Fox Lake?

Let's have some action on this unfair discrimination.

Santa Claus is coming to town... and all his helpers are rushing around like mad to put in somebody's stocking... doesn't shopping in the toy section make you wish you were ten years old again?

Like guns that shoot around corners—just wonderful for popping Pop while he's shaving. Why aren't dolls pretty any more? Does that mean little girls don't WANT to be pretty now-a-days? When I see one with its hair up in rollers, and a babushka around same, I shall quit buying dolls.

And have you seen MARV HEATH since he quit smoking? He'll be able to play Santa without the help of a pillow soon. When they make an aluminum Christmas tree with the smell of pine floating from it, I may like them—but I doubt it.

A local store is so consistently out of whatever you want that we now call it THE OUT HOUSE.

It was a good thing the Fire Chief was around when Martha Hunter wheeled in her homemade birthday cake in honor of Clerk Clarence Shultis and Fire Chief Edgar Simonsen at the Village Board meeting last week. They huffed and they puffed and the candles kept on blazing. Modern science is wonderful, isn't it?

Operation Snowball To Bring Gifts To Mental Patients

"Operation Snowball" will deliver over 1,000 gifts to Chicago State Hospital and over 1,000 gifts to Manteno State Hospital on Friday, December 18, according to Mrs. C. E. Niehoff, honorary chairman.

"Operation Snowball" which is sponsored by the Mental Health Society in co-operation with several civic and service organizations, is endeavoring to secure over 15,000 gifts for the mentally ill patients in the state hospitals in Chicago and Manteno. Mrs. Niehoff said, "We are pleased to deliver this first shipment of gifts, all of which have been individually gift wrapped by volunteers and catalogued for distribution by the hospital." Officials at Chicago State Hospital and Manteno indicated that the gifts will be carefully selected for each patient and will be distributed to them on Christmas Eve or Christmas Day.

Mrs. Niehoff reported that additional deliveries of gifts will take place on December 21 and 23 and said, "I wish to take this opportunity to thank the thousands of citizens who have responded to 'Operation Snowball' and by their efforts they will truly help to bring a brighter holiday and a better year to the thousands of Chicago area mental patients. It's our sincere hope that this can be the beginning of a year-around program to secure gifts for mentally ill patients which may be used not only at holiday time, but for birthdays, ward parties and other special occasions throughout the entire year." Sequoits Take Close Game From Warren

Antioch had to rely on their bench Friday night as they outlasted a second half Warren rally to register their third conference win 68 to 67 at Gurnee.

The Sequoits enjoyed a 42 to 27 halftime lead, but foul trouble plagued them in the second stanza as Vic Rogers, Tyrone Walls and Bernie Smith were all whistled out of the contest in the third period. The Blue Devils also lost three via the foul route, Thompson, Harkins and Zupan.

Sixty-three fouls were called in the closely officiated contest. The Sequoits took command early in the first quarter and led going into the second period 27 to 18. They continued to stretch their margin in the second period and had increased their lead to 15 points at halftime.

The loss of 6' 9" Vic Rogers early in the third quarter gave the Blue Devils a rebounding edge and they at once began to close the gap. Rogers was closely followed by Walls and Smith and with them went much of the Sequoits' scoring punch.

Coach Roger Andrews called on Pat Sheehan and Wally Henning to fill the gap and although Warren came to within one point the Sequoits hung on for the 68 to 67 margin.

In spite of playing only two minutes of the second half Rogers picked off 12 rebounds to give the Sequoits a 40 to 35 edge in this department.

Bob Schmitz was the leading scorer for Antioch with 18 points on 8 baskets and 2 free throws. Schmitz also played a fine floor game and got the offense clicking at crucial times.

Antioch hit 25 of 71 from the field for 35% and 15 free throws for 52%. Warren had 27 of 73 from the field and 13 of 26 from the charity line.

"The steady play of our reserves plus another outstanding performance by Tom Blackman helped us tremendously," Coach Andrews said. "Tom made four clutch free throws in the closing minutes and picked off a couple of key rebounds," he added.

The Sequoits go to Rockford Saturday when they will compete in the Rockford Classic. Antioch will face Rockford Boylan at 7 p.m. at Boylan High School.

SEQUOIT Of The Week

Bob Schmitz was named "Sequit of the Week" early this week for his performance in the game Friday night against Warren. Bob was Antioch's leading scorer, sparking the Sequoits to a 68-67 win. He also did a fine job of running the Sequoits' offense from his position in the back court.

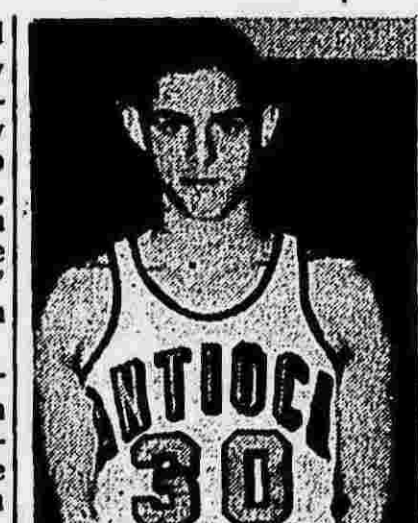

In addition to a fine offensive game Bob did more than his share on defensive holding Warren's Hannula to one basket. Hannula has been one of Warren's better scorers thus far this season.

Bob is a senior at Antioch taking Bookkeeping, English, Economics and Government. At 17 years of age Bob has already decided on a career in business and would like to attend either Duquesne or Southern Illinois University after graduation this June.

Bob's hobbies are hunting and boat racing. He lives at Route 3, Box 284, Antioch.

Most High School Teachers Go Home For Christmas

What do High School teachers do during Christmas vacation?

Students probably think they spend this free time thinking up new ways to pile more work and vexing problems on them (the students).

No. Teachers, it seems, are pretty much like other human beings. Most of them are spending the Christmas vacations visiting the home folks; a few are going on winter vacations to the sunny South; a few are seeking colder climates for the Christmas vacation; and one, Warren Polley, is pulling a switch. Polley's the assistant superintendent at Antioch High; he's on sabbatical leave and attending the Illinois State University at Normal, Ill. Mr. Polley spent three days prior to Christmas vacation visiting at Antioch High School.

Dora Beattie (Business Education), Marilyn Miller (Physical Ed.) and Diane Busch (Librarian) are driving to Florida for a winter vacation.

Edward Kurek, guidance coordinator, is vacationing in Fort Lauderdale.

Lucien McLean, social studies, is going to St. Louis.

Stuart Good, Industrial arts, is spending Christmas in Chicago with Mrs. Good's parents.

Roger Andrews, basketball coach, is spending Christmas in Rockford.

Mary Baehler, English staff, will spend Christmas with her parents in Mt. Horeb, Wis.

Donald Beveroth, English staff, will be visiting his parents in Peoria.

Gary Allen, social studies, will be at the home of his parents in Elgin.

James Erdman, driver education, will be visiting his parents in Peoria.

Ward Lear, business education, is attending the NBET convention in Chicago for three days, then will visit his parents in Brazil, Ill.

Andrew Hauptman, driver education, will be visiting his parents in Bloomington.

Leo Micure, guidance staff, will be visiting his parents in Lawrenceville.

Charles Lindholm, guidance staff, will spend some time with his parents in Iowa.

Albert Dittman, superintendent, plans to take a trip to his cabin at Summit Lake, Wis.

Ralph Brooke, fine arts department, will visit in Mississippi and Louisiana.

Marlene Mallinoro, home economics, will be visiting her parents in Donovan.

Robert Yonke, math department, will be visiting his parents in Buckley.

Richard Elliston, science department, will be visiting in Pittsburgh and Tulsa, Okla.

Jeanette Tulumello, social studies, is spending Christmas with her mother in Darr, Ill., and then plans to drive to Canada.

Elaine Weidner, Dean of Girls, is visiting her parents in Harvard.

Dennis Sullivan, visual aid, will visit his parents in Lombard.

Fern Tate, Latin, will be visiting her sister and brother-in-law at Lebanon.

Mabel Albrecht, home economics, will be vacationing with her son in Lake Bluff, and a son in St. Louis.

Kenneth Smouse, English, will spend Christmas Day with his family in Marseilles, then return to Antioch. Part of his Christmas vacation will be spent struggling with rehearsals for the next PM & L play, "Thurber's Carnival."

Ann Robinson, physical education, will spend the holidays in Canada.

Huge Tree At Great Lakes

When it comes to Christmas, the Great Lakes Naval training center goes Texas style. Not only is it the world's largest naval training center, but it has reason to believe it has the tallest single Christmas tree in the Midwest.

Towering 42 feet in the air, the tree has a circumference of 14 feet, and is decorated with 600 colorful lights.

The base of the tree was planted five feet in the ground and is held erect by glider wires.

The tree has been placed on Ross Field in front of the Headquarters for the Commandant of the Ninth Naval District.

Great Lakes' Public Works Department used a snorkel and a linesman truck to erect and decorate the tree. Their final touch was a white star which adorns the tip.

Rockford Classic To Test Snappy Sequoit Squad

Antioch Sequoits will take a breather from conference action over the holidays but chances are they won't be getting too rusty as they will play in the Rockford Classic beginning December 26 at Rockford Boylan High School.

The Sequoits will get a chance to see how they will stack up against some pretty tough competition. Two teams in the tourney will bring undefeated records, Mundelein and Main South have 8-0 and 7-0 records respectively.

Dundee and Chicago Carver have each been beaten only once bringing 8-1 and 3-1 records. Antioch will go into the tourney with a respectable 6-2 record and along with Dundee and Mundelein have already had tournament experience this year.

The classic scheduled for December 26, 28, 29 and 30 is sponsored jointly by four Rockford schools, Boylan, Auburn, Guilford and Harlem. All games will be played in the 3200 seat Boylan gym. Tickets for all sessions will be on sale as long as they last—at the door to the gymnasium.

The Boylan cafeteria will be in operation throughout the tourney so fans may eat on the premises between sessions.

Peoria Manual, first round foe of Auburn, brings the only returning member of last year's all-tourney team into this year's Classic. Al Smith, 6-1 senior guard, led the Rams to second place last year and was the second highest scorer in the tourney. He is also two-time all-conference star in the Midstate Eight Conference.

Al Jackson, 6-4 sophomore on this year's Manual team, is the younger brother of Eddie Jackson, former Manual all-stater now starring for the Bradley Braves.

Some of the individual stars who will be playing in the Classic: Bruce Hyink, 6-9 Carl Sandburg center; Vic Rogers, 6-9 Antioch center; Tom Oders, 6-5 Dundee center; Ken Maxey, Dave Lohrke, 6-3 Mundelein center; Myron Bentz, 6-4 McHenry center.

Central High Starts Christmas Vacation On Wed., Dec. 23

The Future Nurses' Club of Salem Central High School sent four representatives to the General Hospital at Kenosha to deliver some Christmas cheer to the children's ward at the hospital.

The girls entertained the children with a program, then gave scrap books prepared by the Future Nurses to the small patients. The four who made the trip were Janice Thuenmuler, Alice Conrad, Christine Cook and Mary Lou Williams.

The club sold Christmas corages to add to the fund for a scholarship to go to some member of their club.

The senior class of Central High will hold a Christmas dance at the school on Dec. 29. The theme will be "Snowflake Fantasy."

The Basis Of Christmas

To most Americans the significance of Christmas this year comes in sharper focus. Rude shocks into recognition of the tenuousness of material life, and awakened to the immortal nature of true sacrifice and devotion, they look for a deeper understanding of the divine purpose which brought the Christ child into the world. They experience fresh longings for that peace on earth which Jesus taught as coming from universal acceptance of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man.

The birth of Christ Jesus was a divine event. The human Jesus had but a short span of life, but the Christ spirit, which he so completely embodied and demonstrated, lives on eternally to guide and bless mankind. All good is eternal, and whatever we see and know of good in human life, continues with us always.

In line with these thoughts the words of Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, seem of particular significance:

"Christmas respects the Christ too much to submerge itself in merely temporary means and ends. It represents the eternal informing Soul recognized only in harmony, in the beauty and bounty of life everlasting. In the truth that is life, the life that heals and saves mankind....

"In Christian Science, Christmas stands for the real, the absolute and eternal, for the things of Spirit, not of matter."

The basis of Christmas is the rock, Christ Jesus; its fruits are inspiration and spiritual understanding of joy and rejoicing not because of tradition usage, or corporeal pleasures, but because of fundamental and demonstrable truth, because of the heaven within us. The basis of Christmas is love loving its enemies, returning good for evil, love that suffereth long, and is kind.... (The First Church of Christ, Scientists, and Miscellaneous, pp. 259-260).

American Legion service officers are reminded of several important benefits changes, effective Jan. 1, for veterans and their dependents. Recently enacted legislation has expanded both the veterans pension and National Service Life Insurance (NSLI) programs.

The Many Ways Of Xmas

Christmas is celebrated many ways, but HOW it's done depends on where you are.

Sweden, Mexico, the Netherlands, Spain, Denmark, France—wherever you go in the world, you will find that each country has its own Christmas traditions.

In Bethlehem, the birthplace of Christ, the streets are filled on Christmas Eve with thousands of devout pilgrims, representing the many faiths, who journey there to worship. Back and forth they pass in processions, holding candles and singing, as they visit sacred crypts, grottos and churches.

That evening a special mass is held in the Church of the Nativity, believed to be the oldest Christian sanctuary in the world. At midnight, church bells ring for miles around calling the celebrants to assemble at Shepherd's Field to sing hymns.

In Sweden, Christmas is celebrated in a different way. Here the Yuletide officially begins on December 13, St. Lucia's Day. Everyone goes outside, carrying lights and singing carols door to door. The Ancients believed this day the darkest of the year. Thus man-made brightness is used to dispel the "spirits of darkness."

Then, Christmas itself starts off early the morning of December 25 when—before the family goes to church—a daughter of the house, dressed as St. Lucia, visits each bedroom. Robed in white, she wears on her head a wreath of whortleberry leaves encircled with lighted candles, and carries a tray of coffee and special Lucia cakes.

In Denmark, Christmas is celebrated—not on December 25—but on Christmas Eve. Late that afternoon, all work ceases, church bells peal, and people flock to the churches that have been festively lighted and decorated with fragrant green pines.

After services, men and women, young and old, return home for a traditional Christmas Eve dinner, after which they join hands and move around the gaily-decorated Christmas tree, singing old Christmas hymns.

In neighboring Norway, Christmas is celebrated still another way. Here, besides the traditional customs, animals are given extra rations since they witnessed the birth of Christ. Also, some peasants still attach large bundles of oats to sticks and put them on roofs to chase away evil spirits. The theory is that the green rods and crops are effective helpers against the "evil one."

In the United States, Christmas is also celebrated in many ways. Sending greeting cards to friends and loved ones at this time of year has become a tradition. One widely-used card has special meaning. It is sent by Lutheran ministers over the nation to their church members in military service far from home. For the past eleven years the practice has been carried on with more than 800,000 of the uniquely designed Christmas Cards sent out.

Made available by the National Lutheran Council's Division of Service to Military Personnel, these cards are actually 12-page booklets. They not only tell the story of Christmas, but also enable the servicemen who receive them to have their own private Christmas devotionals wherever they may be stationed.

Strikingly illustrated, the pages of this year's card contain such features as the story in words and pictures of the birth of Christ, lyrics and music to "Silent Night" and "O Little Town of Bethlehem," and scenes of a modern Christmas as well as prayers. On one page, pastors write personal messages to their members in uniform.

Across the Atlantic in Spain, Christmas ceremonies begin early in December. Here the religious focal point is the "Belenes" or "Nacimientos"—the nativity scene—which hold a place of honor in every home. Weeks before, street vendors sell clay, wood, and cardboard figures representing the Holy Family, shepherds, and animals in the manger. Then each family goes to work to make its nativity scene as beautiful and traditional as possible. Prizes are given for the best representations.

South of the border in Mexico, religious-social celebrations, called Posadas are familiar throughout the country. "Posada" means lodging or shelter in Spanish. However, "Posadas" now is the collective term given in Mexico to the nine days of celebration with which Mexicans commemorate Joseph and Mary's difficult journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem.

In France, Christmas is celebrated by religious processions, steeped in tradition, and attended by people from all over the world.

At Baux, for example, a centuries-old ceremony is repeated each Christmas Eve. A shepherd brings into the ancient St. Vincent's Church a newborn lamb that is placed in a grotto where the figure of the Infant Jesus lies in a crèche.

In the Netherlands, the Christmas celebration centers around the home. After attending church services on Christmas Eve, the family returns home, enjoys a traditional dinner, then sits around the tree, re-telling stories of Christmas in an atmosphere of peace and happiness.

In nearby Switzerland, in some provinces the children await the arrival of the Christ-Kindl—the little Christ child, always depicted in white, carrying a magic wand, and wearing a shining crown.

In other provinces, they look for St. Nikolaus who with his servant Schultzi, not only distributes gifts to them, but also looks up their good and bad deeds in a book and if they have been bad warns them to be good.

Pollish "Star-boys" roam the countryside on Christmas Day portraying the wise men of the East and performing the drama of the Nativity. In England, many Christmas traditions go back to ancient times. At Dowsbury in Yorkshire, Christmas Eve is the time for the unusual custom of "Tolling the Devil's Knell." Performed for more than 700 years, this involves tolling the bells of the local church—this year 1964 times—the Devil supposedly perishing on the final stroke.

In the Philippines the Christmas celebration begins on December 16, when the first of a novena of masses is sung. Called misas de gallo (mass of the rooster) because it starts so early, this ceremony was originally a farmer's mass, participated in by pious farmers, farmers who congregated before leaving for the rice fields at dawn.

And so it goes. From the lighted processions in Europe to the South Sea Islands, where the carols come out with a Polynesian beat and Santa's reindeer are replaced by canoes, Christmas is celebrated all around the world. But HOW it's done depends on where you are.

How Can Apply

For Social Security

Under amendments to the social security law, signed by

President Johnson on October 13, 1965, will have until April 15, 1965, to elect to be covered by social security if they have not already done so.

The previous deadline for election of coverage under social security by persons in the ministry, for two or more years after 1954, had expired on April 15, 1962. After that date social security coverage was open only to those just starting in the ministry.

To obtain social security protection for himself and for his family, a clergyman needs to take the following steps:

(1) Obtain a social security account number card from the nearest social security office—If he does not already have one;

(2) Fill out Form 2031, obtainable from the District Director of Internal Revenue or the social security office;

(3) File the Form 2031 with the District Director of Internal Revenue for the district in which he lives.

(4) Report his earnings
from the ministry and pay the social security taxes on them to the District Director of Internal Revenue for the taxable years 1962, 1963 and 1964.

Clergymen who have been reporting their earnings from the ministry, but who are not certain that they have filed a valid waiver, should get in touch with the nearest Internal Revenue Service office so that any remedial action can be taken within the time limits.

A clergyman is excluded from social security coverage unless he waives his exclusion by filing the waiver certificate. After filing this certificate, he reports his earnings from the ministry and pay the social security taxes on them to the District

Director of Internal Revenue for the taxable years 1962, 1963 and 1964.

Evolution Gave Santa His Spare-Tire

Like most folks, Santa Claus couldn't fight middle-age spread.

But his paunch took 1,700 years to develop.

To look at him now, you'd never guess that the fat, jolly little fellow was once a tall, slim, somber gentleman in halo and robes.

But that's exactly how St. Nicholas — special friend of children and patron of Russia, Italy, Norway and New York City — looked during his gift-giving spree of the early 4th Century.

Nicholas was born in Patara, a village in Asia Minor. And almost from the start he was known for his good deeds. As a teen-ager he supplied bags of gold to impoverished spinners who needed dowries to catch a man.

After his death Dec. 6, 343 A. D., many European countries adopted him as their patron saint.

So did New York City — in 1613, when it was still Nieuw Amsterdam.

About the same time that St. Nick gifts first began to appear the eve of Dec. 6, a 13th century Russian artist created the classic portrait of the saint with tiny colored tiles.

He was hollow cheeked, balding and full of worries, judging from his wrinkled forehead.

And he stayed that way — somber and saintly and wearing bishop's robes — for almost 700 years. When American artists began experimenting with him in the early 1800's the saint started to get short, fat and happy.

The twinkle in his eye was first put there in 1821 by an unknown artist illustrating a book called "The Children's Friend."

The artist copied the somber 13th century portrait, then turned up the corners of his mouth, curled his beard, crinkled his eyes and gave him a tall fur hat.

This 1821 illustration is the first to show Santa bringing Christmas gifts, the first to show him as a little fellow and the first to show reindeer and sleigh.

Years later — in December 1882 — a New York professor, Clement C. Moore, gave the world a new kind of Santa in his "A Visit from St. Nicholas" (or "The Night Before Christmas"). A twinkling, roly-poly little elf with apple cheeks, a fur suit — and a decided paunch.

Some of history's most interesting Santas, according to Jones, are these:

—The slave-driver Santa, a scowling blackbeard shaking fists at trail-looking elves.

This appeared in 1850, illustrating a book by Caroline H. Butler, "The Little Messenger Birds."

—The Grand Army of the Republic Santa, wearing stars and stripes dangling a puppet Jefferson Davis and entertaining Northern troops.

Thomas Nast, Harper's Weekly cartoonist who created the Democratic Donkey and the Republican Elephant, drew this Santa in 1863.

The first Santa in a red suit, drawn by Thomas Nast in 1870. Before then, he usually appeared in a dull brown fur.

The Natty Santa, a little elf in black tights, green vest, green bow tie and matching green coat trimmed with black fur. This was drawn in 1902 by W. W. Denslow to illustrate "A Visit from St. Nicholas."

After World War I Santa Claus was stereotyped in a red suit with white fur trim and a white beard.

There is no theology nor science that could make a child happier than just believing in Santa Claus. Nor is there any that will make men and women happier than believing in the spirit of Christmas.

How 'Silent Night' Had Its Origin

As certain as Christmas are inquiries about the origin of the favorite Christmas carol, "Silent Night, Holy Night." This year the Austrian information service anticipates them with its own story.

"Silent Night" was written December 24, 1818, by Joseph Mohr, a priest of the little church of Saint Nicola in the village of Oberndorf, near Salzburg, to music composed by the church's assistant organist, Franz Gruber.

In Austria, Christmas eve is the time when the Christmas tree is lit for the first time and presents are given and received. The gifts are supposed to come from Knecht Ruprecht or from the Christ Child (Christkind). Knecht Ruprecht has a long white beard, wears heavy boots, drives a sleigh drawn by reindeer, and very much resembles Santa Claus, except that his name is different.

The Christmas tree is beautifully decorated with multi-colored glass baubles, various sweets and candies wrapped in tinfoil, gilded nuts, and either a little angel or a large shining glass ball is fixed to the top. It is lit by candles, electric lighting being practically never used for that purpose.

The presents are usually not wrapped and a separate section, either underneath the tree or on tables, is reserved for each person receiving a present. After the presents have been inspected and a few Christmas carols have been sung, everybody sits down to Christmas dinner the traditional main dish being carp. At midnight it is customary especially in the country, to attend Christmas mass.

It is a custom in Austria that all shops are open on the last two Sundays before Christmas, so that the working population may do their shopping at leisure. The last Sunday before Christmas is called "Golden Sunday" (Glodoner-Sonntag) and the last but one is "Silver Sunday" (Silberner-Sonntag). Into this tradition in a land of Christmas snow, glittering lakes and friendly mountains, "Silent Night" was born to become the special Christmas favorite wherever carols are sung.

Origin of The Christmas Tree

The origin of the Christmas tree is unknown. Some authorities say that Dr. Martin Luther, the Reformation leader, was walking through the woods in Germany and he saw stars twinkling through tree branches and that this gave him the idea of the lighted Christmas tree.

The Christmas tree first showed up in Chicago about 1855, when Chicago's first families settled there.

The silver star atop the Christmas tree signifies the star the Magi followed to the stable of Bethlehem.

And how about the origin of Santa Claus? This historical personage often is lost at Christmas time in fanciful tales of a roly-poly gentleman from the North Pole.

A jolly old bishop of Myra, Asia Minor, the original St. Nicholas, living in the 4th Century A. D., was the first and only Santa Claus, the patron of children.

He lived and went on doing good things, the fame of which spread throughout the ages, coming down to us as Santa Claus.

Whether or not he went down chimneys, we can infer from the legend that St. Nicholas was especially concerned about helping downless maidens. Unknown to anyone, he'd slip a pot of gold to the father so that he would be able to marry off his daughter.

How did St. Nick get the gold to the fathers during the night when the doors and windows were barred? It must have been by the chimney route, it is believed.

Or ask your six-year-old Johnny how Santa got in the house with the bag of gifts—he'll tell you.

The reindeer are a part of Santa Claus, because the German ancestors could not imagine at that time any locomotives, planes or rockets. They were sure that the venerable white-bearded gent used the fastest motive power then known—the reindeer.

St. Francis of Assisi popularized the singing of Christmas carols. He also, it is said, started the tradition of erecting Christmas creches.

Ben Johnson is credited for popularizing the carols of England. He wrote several of them, with "I Sing the Birth That Was Born To Night," being the best known.

From Italy the carol spread to Spain and France and finally all over Europe. Today's popular carols in the United States come from a variety of sources. A Unitarian minister, Edmund Sears, and a Detroit newspaperman, Richard Willis, wrote "I Came Upon a Midnight Clear."

Episcopalian ministers wrote "O Little Town of Bethlehem" (Phillips Brooks) and "We Three Kings of the Orient Are" John Henry Hopkins, Jr.) Martin Luther wrote "From Heaven Above I come to you." He is also credited with writing either the words or music of "Away in a Manger."

The most popular Christmas carol, "Silent Night," was written by a Catholic priest, the Rev. Joseph Mohr. The lyrics of "Adeste Fideles" were written by St. Bonaventura.

Christmas Eve is one of the most solemn days of the year for Americans of many national origins. To the Poles it is "Wieczera Wigilijna" or Christmas Eve vigil. In many homes the table is covered with hay, and an empty chair is reserved for a chance stranger.

Among Lithuanians Christmas Eve is called "Kucios," when strictest fast is observed. The father, or head of the family breaks an unleavened wafer, known as plotkele, and its particles are passed around, first to the wife, then to the children.

In most homes of Chicago's Italians there are Christmas cribs. The Italo-Americans take great care in making the crib, known as a presepio.

An Italian on Christmas day will greet you cheerily: "Buon Natale!"

Chicago's more than 300, Scandinavians will reenact Christmas traditions typical of the people of Norway, Sweden and Denmark.

While for most of Chicago's Christians Christmas may be over by the end of December 25, some 400,000 of them will observe Christmas 13 days after December 25 in accordance with the Julian Calendar.

Christians for the Eastern Orthodox—Russians, Ukrainians, Serbs, Macedonians, Romanians, Bulgarians, Carpatho-Russians—is a deeply religious holiday marked with ancient traditions.

CHERUBS' STAR

At a rehearsal for a Sunday School Christmas tableau, the teacher carefully lined up four little "cherubs." Each carried a huge cutout letter. As they stood side by side, the letters would spell "Star." A slight mixup occurred, and those present in the church auditorium gasped as the four little performers took their places—in reverse.

Drive carefully so that others may live.

Christmas Morning

When I wake on Christmas morning
 With the winter sun aglow,
 Like a Christmas gift in tissue
 Lies our elty, wrapped in snow.
 At length the doors fly open
 And the children tumble out
 With joyous Christmas greetings.
 Gay laughter and loud shouts.
 They build rows of life-like snowmen.
 Till at length you hardly know
 Which of them are snowy children
 And which are children built of snow!
 They have mittens warm and fuzzy.
 They have sleds of brilliant hue
 To play with in the open
 The bright day through.
 At last the shadows lengthen
 And their watch the white stars keep.
 Like a present still unopened
 Lies the city wrapped in sleep.

GERMAN SAND TORTE

(16 to 20 servings)
 3 1/2 cups sifted cake flour plus 2 tablespoons
 1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
 1 cup butter or margarine
 1 1/4 cups sugar plus 2 tablespoons
 1 1/2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
 1 1/2 tablespoons lemon juice
 1 cup milk
 4 eggs, plus one yolk
 Icing (see below)
 1 cup toasted slivered almonds.

Sift flour with salt and baking powder. Cream butter and sugar until light and fluffy (3 minutes; at medium speed of electric mixer.) Mix in lemon rind and juice. Add milk and blend well. Add sifted dry ingredients and mix well (2 minutes at low speed). Add eggs one at a time, beating (for 1 minute at low speed) after each addition. Pour batter into greased 12 cup tube pan. Bake at 300 degrees about 1 hour and 20 minutes. Turn out onto a rack to cool. When cool, cut cake in half crosswise and spread vanilla icing between the halves. Ice side of cake (top, too, if you wish) and sprinkle with toasted slivered almonds.

To prepare icing, combine 1 pound confectioners' sugar, 1/2 cup softened butter, 5 tablespoons rich milk, 1 teaspoon light corn syrup, and 1 teaspoon vanilla, mixing until smooth.

OXTAIL STEW

(four servings)
 2 pounds oxtails, disjointed
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon pepper
 1/3 cup drippings
 1 cup water
 2 tablespoons catsup
 1 bay leaf
 1 clove garlic, minced
 2 medium onions, chopped fine
 1 cup chopped celery
 1 tablespoon minced parsley

Dredge meat in seasoned flour. Brown on all sides in hot drippings. Drain off excess fat. Add remaining ingredients, except parsley. Cover and cook slowly for about 3 hours, or until meat is tender. Serve sprinkled with parsley.

LIGHT GERMAN PANCAKE

(2 servings)
 3 eggs
 1/2 cup heavy cream
 1 cup flour
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 Butter, applesauce, sugar, cinnamon
 Beat eggs and cream together until mixture is fluffy. Fold in flour and salt. Heat large iron skillet until sizzling hot. Grease bottom of skillet (and high up on sides) generously with butter. Pour batter into skillet. Cook a minute or two without stirring and then continue cooking in pre-heated 450 degree oven for about 8 minutes, remove pancake, spread it with applesauce, melted butter, sugar and cinnamon. Roll it, jelly roll fashion, and serve hot.

SANTA CLAUS LOSES FACE

The department store Santa Claus beckoned to the 7 year old girl to come forward, but the little girl stopped just out of reach. "If it's just the same to you," she said, "please don't kiss me. Last year you left whiskers all over my face."

Read the Fine Print Before Signing

In the rush of last minute Christmas shopping, one lady bought a box of identical greeting cards. Without bothering to read the verse, she hastily signed and addressed all but one of them. Several days after they'd been sent, she came across the one card which hadn't been sent, and looked at the message. She was horrified to read:

"This card is just to say
 A little gift is on the way."

IT AIN'T FAIR

I work like blazes every day to keep the family check-book going; scrimp a little here and there for Christmas buying. Shop 'mid mobs. Put up a tree. Wrap gifts 'til midnight.

And what happens? Some pot-bellied little guy from the North Pole, who's too lazy to shave gets all the credit from my kids.

BLUE LAWS ONCE BANNED CHRISTMAS

Celebrating Christmas was frowned upon by Puritans in the early New England colonies. They did not observe holy days. The observation of Christmas and the making of mince pies was forbidden by blue laws in the Massachusetts and New Haven colonies.

DON'T BOTHER

A little boy approached Santa in a department store with a long list of requests. He wanted a bicycle, and a wagon, a chemical set, a cowboy suit, a set of trains, a football and roller skates. "That's a pretty long list," Santa said sternly, "I'll have to check in my book and see if you were a good boy." "No, no," the youngster replied quickly. "Never mind checking. I'll just take the roller skates."

PRIVATE

The department store clerk was filling out a sales slip during the Christmas shopping rush. As the woman customer gave her address, the harassed clerk remarked: "A madhouse, isn't it?"

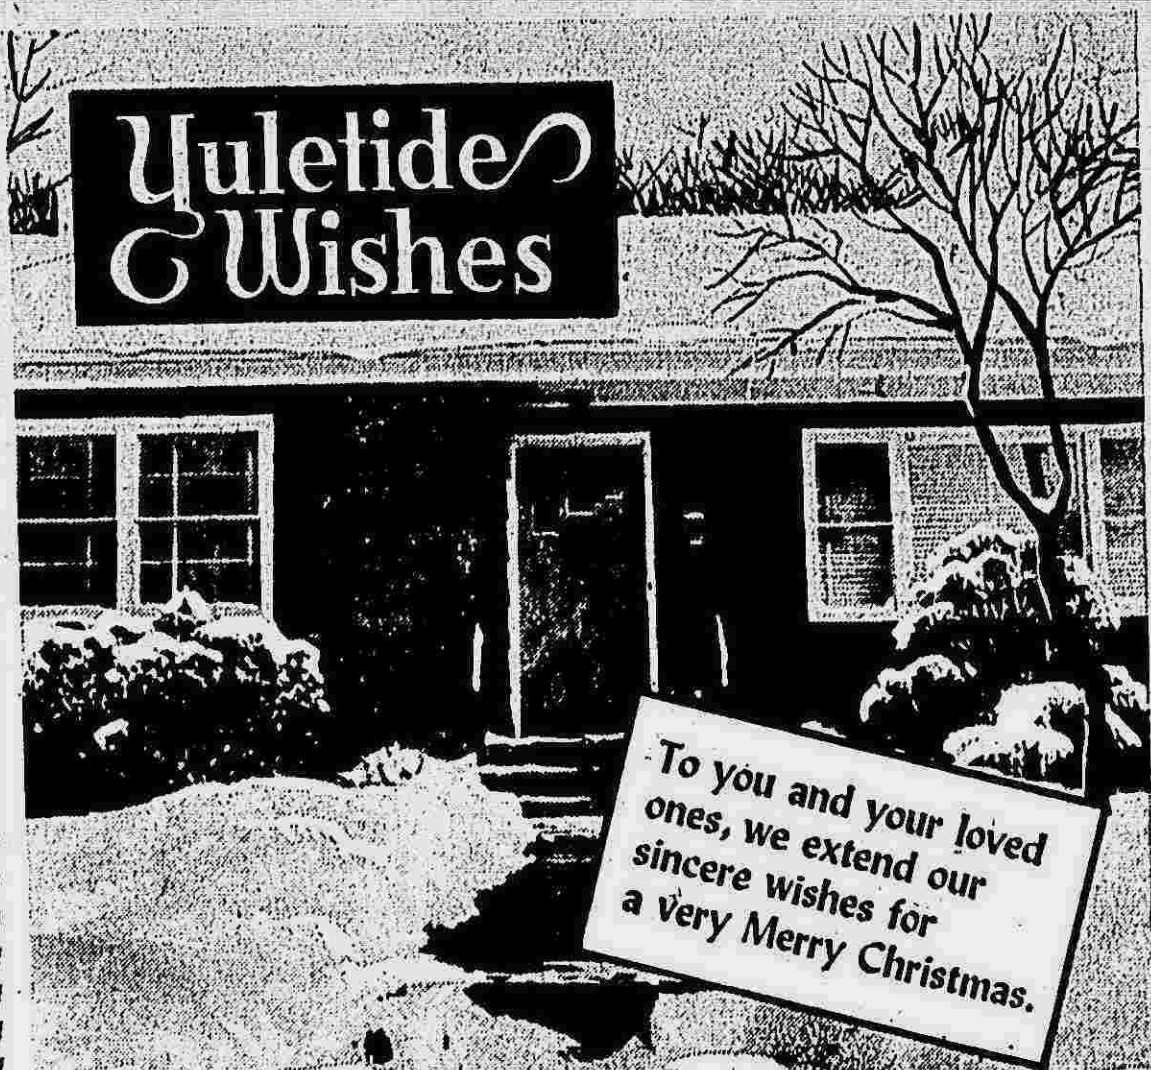

"No," the customer replied somewhat testily. "It's a private residence."
